

LET THE GOOD WORK GO ON

WILSON DETERMINED TO CRUSH
RUSSELL AND BUTLER

Somebody Steals Our State Treasurer's Railway Passes—A Scheme to Oust Wake County's Efficient Road Supervisor for a Hungry Populist—Organization of Raleigh's New Newspaper Company—Bridal Couple Blow Out the Gas and go to Sleep

Messenger Bureau,

Raleigh, N. C., November 5.

Otho Wilson says his "mission" is to crush Senator Butler and Governor Russell.

There is more talk to the effect that T. M. Argo, of this city, is very apt to get the United States district attorneyship. Republicans say so and add that it seems O. J. Speares, Claude Bernard and C. A. Cook cannot get this coveted place.

Cotton is now really on a 5 cent basis. There are people who believe it will go to 4 1/2 cents, though really this seems hardly possible.

Today was set for the hearing before the railway commission of the telephone company's exceptions to the order of the commission reducing rates, but owing to the absence of two commissioners it is postponed until the 19th instant.

State Treasurer Worth was robbed day before yesterday between Greensboro and Kernersville. In his pocketbook he says was a $35 check and two railway passes, annuals; one on the North Carolina railway, the other on the Atlantic and North Carolina railway. Mr. Worth says he is chairman of the finance committee of the North Carolina railway and so is entitled to a pass. He says he got the one on the Atlantic and North Carolina railway so he could go to the annual convention at Morehead city last summer. At the same time it must be said he travels a good deal westward and not infrequently goes east, as he owns a farm on the line of the Atlantic and North Carolina railway like a witness before the superior court in the matter of one free pass at least.

There are two populist county commissioners in Wake, and it is learned that they have in hand a plan to displace the present excellent supervisor of roads, W. C. McMackin, and give that place to C. B. Ray, populist, who is superintendent of the county home and workhouse, the purpose being to let Ray hire a man to look after the roads. If they fail in this scheme then they want to hire a man at $40 or $50 a month to take McMackin's place. The county convicts are working on the public roads in the Raleigh road district, which pays all the road taxes. The rest of the county is put to no expense. The whole matter is to make a place for a populist and get rid of an experienced man.

The new democratic daily here is named The Post. This was decided upon at a meeting of its stockholders last night. It was a full meeting and elected as directors Greek O. Andrews, W. P. Whitaker, D. E. Exerett, John A. Mills, and W. E. Jones. Thomas H. Briggs presided at the meeting. The directors met and elected Greek O. Andrews president and manager, W. P. Whitaker secretary. The organization of the staff was fully discussed. The members are not yet determined on, but the announcement will be made in a few days. It was decided that the first number should appear November 20th. Mergenthaler type setting machines are ordered and a very fine press and general outfit.

Sidney Watkins, a young man of Wilson county, arrived here yesterday afternoon on his bridal tour, having been married in the morning. He and his bride were at the Yarbrough house. He blew out the gas. At 11:30 o'clock a clerk discovered this fact. It saved their lives. They were awakened in time.

John B. Hussey, a Washington republican newspaper correspondent, is here and today sued United States Marshal O. J. Speares $100. The cause was heard before Justice of the Peace John Nichols. Carroll claims that Hussey said some pleasant things about him in a newspaper last winter and that at Washington he offered, in return for the courtesy, to make Hussey a present of a hat or suit of clothes which was declined; that Hussey drew a draft on him last summer, which was protested, and yesterday drew another, which was served in the same way, and that today the warrant in the $100 suit was served.

A New Phase of the Behring Sea Negotiations

Washington, November 5.—A new phase of the Behring sea negotiations developed today when the state department was advised that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, and Sir Louis Davies, minister of marine and fisheries in the Laurier cabinet, would come here early next week to take part in the negotiations. The British embassy was not advised until it was understood that the British foreign office was equally unaware of the fact that the chief officials of Canada would come to Washington to treat in person on the subject. Up to this time the British authorities had strenuously insisted that the Behring sea meeting was to be confined strictly to an exchange of technical information between "experts," and they have resisted any larger consideration on the subject, which would involve general principles. How far they will be able to treat concerning Behring sea, reciprocity or other subjects is a question of interesting conjecture. The state department is much gratified at their coming, as it is felt to offer the prospect of considering the sealing question on broader lines than heretofore.

General Weyler to be Court-Martialed

Madrid, Nov. 5.—The Spanish government, as a result of the deliberations of the ministers over the utterances of General Weyler, the former captain general of Cuba, has come to the decision to try him by court martial, no matter where he lands, if he confirms the accuracy of the press reports of his utterances. The commanding officers at all the ports of the Spanish kingdom have been instructed to demand of General Weyler the moment he can be communicated with, the exact terms of the speech which he delivered in reply to the manifestation at Havana upon the occasion of the embarkation for Spain on Sunday, on Wednesday, as cable to the Associated Press, reached Gibara, on the northwest coast of Cuba, with her engines disabled, and may be compelled to return to Havana, in which case it is not unlikely that there will be interesting developments.

PAID FIRE DEPARTMENT

Special Meeting of the Board of Aldermen Last Night to Elect the Chief and Men of the Paid Department—Chief Schnibben Re-Elected—Mr. Sutton Elected City Attorney

A special meeting of the board of aldermen was called last night for the purpose of electing a paid fire department and to elect a city attorney. Mayor S. P. Wright and Aldermen Twining, Keith, Hewlett, Morrill, Benson, Green, Walker and Norwood were in attendance.

After the object of the meeting had been stated, Alderman Twining moved that the board go into the election of a paid fire department. The motion was adopted.

Mayor Wright stated that it would be first in order to elect a chief for the paid fire department and the present chief, Captain Charles Schnibben, was nominated by Alderman Twining and unanimously elected.

The next business was to elect members for the Howard Relief Steam Fire Engine Company and the following members were elected: P. N. Fick, E. C. Hennessey, John Mohr, T. M. Trent, H. Tietgen, A. C. Winner, B. R. Russell and John Grotgen.

The mayor stated that it was next in order to elect a foreman for the Wilmington Hook and Ladder Company No. 1. Mr. W. P. Monroe, the efficient acting foreman of the volunteer company, was nominated and unanimously elected foreman, and the following men elected as his privates: Joe Hewlett, H. L. Peterson, W. B. Savage and W. M. Hancammon.

For the Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Company, colored, the following men were elected: Alex. Roan, Dave Spicer, Wm. Hall, Robert Simmons, George McGearry, Godfrey Willis, Geo. Mallett and Jas. Ivey.

The following were elected for Phoenix Hose Reel Company, colored: Robert Johnson, Wm. Harris, Wm. H. Lane and Henry Hicks.

It was stated that the members of the paid department will not go on duty until further notice and that the volunteers are expected to attend alarms until notice is given them.

Mr. David B. Sutton was nominated by Alderman Hewlett for city attorney and was elected. Aldermen Keith, Benson and Green were excused from the meeting. Aldermen Hewlett, Morrill, Twining and Walker voted for Mr. Sutton, and Alderman Norwood voted "No."

The meeting then adjourned.

GENERAL WEYLER

To Become a Disturbing Element in Spanish Politics—Secret Meetings Held by His Adherents in the Army

London, November 6.—The Madrid correspondent of The Daily Mail commenting on the difficulties that confront the Spanish government, says:

General Weyler has a large enough following among officers of the army, owing to promotion or for other reasons, in sympathy with him, to make both the republican and carlist parties endeavor to compromise with him in order to obtain his support. The government would be glad to give liberty of action to demonstrations in his favor with a view of gauging the extent of his popularity, but it fears disturbances of the public peace.

There is much discontent among the officers, owing to the marked official favoritism displayed toward officers who have returned from Cuba and the Philippines. A hundred or more officers met secretly here the other day at a military club to discuss the subject. General Boreja, the minister of war, hearing of the meeting, threatened to court-martial the participants if that should be necessary to enforce discipline and instructed the colonels to warn them personally. The officers promised not to repeat the offense, but it is believed they will continue to hold secret meetings. Similar meetings have been held at Toledo, Barcelona, Vittoria, Saragossa and Logrono. The Correspondencia Militar published the facts and advised the officers to deny any if their grievances were not redressed. The editors of three newspapers which printed the news of the meetings have been arrested and will be court-martialed. The Madrid papers got warning and remained silent.

Secretary Hester's Cotton Reports

New Orleans, November 5.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton shows an increase during the week just closed of 241,226 bales, against an increase for the same time last year, 173,257, and an increase year before last of 100,626. The total visible is 2,725,587 bales, against 2,484,311 last week, and 3,225,211 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 2,540,557, against 2,299,351 last week, and 2,325,114 last year and all other kinds 185,000, against 185,000 last week and 300,100 last year. The total world's visible supply shows a decrease of 241,226 bales, and a decrease compared with last year of 499,624.

Secretary Hester's weekly cotton exchange statement issued today shows an increase in the movement into sight compared with the seven days ending this date last year, in round figures of $2,000. For the sixty-six days of the season that have elapsed the aggregate is behind the sixty-six days of last year, 77,000. The amount brought into sight during the past week has been 489,836 bales, against 407,530 for the seven days ending this date last year and for the sixty-six days from September 1st to date, 3,340,350, against 3,417,664 last year. The movement since September 1st shows receipts at United States ports 2,506,319, against 2,302,301 last year; over land across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers 268,178 last year. Southern mill takings, exclusive of the amount consumed at ports, is 261,179, against 221,657 last year. Foreign exports for the week have been 313,554, against 222,925 last year, making the total for the season 1,530,385, against 1,540,275 last year. These movements include the northern spinners. Including stocks left over at ports and interior owners from the last crop and the number of bales brought into sight, the total for the new crop, the supply to date is 3,456,904, against 2,756,213 for the same period last year.

In his farewell address General Weyler complacently observes that he leaves the Island of Cuba with "the insurrection quelled."

ELECTION CONTESTS

SPRINGING UP FROM ALL PARTS OF STATE OF OHIO

Many of Them on the Ground of Elections Not Held in Proper Places—No Telling What the Result Will Be From These Contests—Wood County Case to be Left to the Courts—Democrats do Not Concede Republican Majority in Legislature

Columbus, Ohio, November 5.—The Ohio legislature stands 74 republicans, 70 democrats and one doubtful on the official returns received up to tonight. With a dozen or more of the eighty-eight counties very close, there have been no material changes except in Wood county, which will be claimed by both parties till the courts pass on the action of the supervisors. There have been no unusual proceedings before the returning boards of any of the counties, except that of Wood, although both parties have had their representatives and attorneys in the county seats wherever the vote was close. Chairman McConville, of the democratic state committee, has not changed his claims of democratic majority on joint ballot and will not do so till the official returns of all counties are in and show the final result to differ from those he has at hand.

Chairman McConville and others from the democratic state headquarters, went to Cincinnati tonight to confer with Mr. John R. McLean and other party leaders regarding the returns that are to be made in the close counties.

Chairman Nash insists tonight that the legislature stands 75 republicans to 70 democrats and that the majority joint ballot for senator will not be less than five. He says he is tonight satisfied with the situation in Wood county. What he feared was that the official count might wipe out the small republican plurality in that county.

Slack the face of the official tally sheets showed a plurality of 31 for the republican representative, Judge Nash is willing and ready to have any court pass on the case. He says the law provides that the members of the board of election cannot go behind the returns and the supreme court has held that they have no ministerial powers whatever, cannot hear evidence or use their discretion in throwing out any votes. That is left to the courts and to each branch of the legislature in passing on the credentials of its members. In Wood county today Norris, the republican candidate for representative, filed a protest against the board counting the vote of Freedom township because the board had counted the vote of the precinct of five. This precinct gave Norris 151 and Meares, the democratic candidate for representative 263. If the vote of the township had been thrown out it would have increased the plurality of Norris by 112, but that vote was counted. The republicans insisted that Norris will be declared elected in Wood county and that the legislature stands 75 to 70.

It is learned here tonight that counsel for both the democratic and the republican committees at Bowling Green today agreed to submit the Wood county case at once to the circuit court and the lawyers on both sides went to Toledo for that purpose. The court will be asked to decide whether the election board can go behind the returns. Of course, it will be left for proceedings in contest in the house to decide whether the vote of Center township shall be counted.

Information has been received at republican headquarters of protests to the soldier's home vote at Dayton on the ground that the voting precincts were not in the proper place. If that vote should be thrown out the democrats would gain two representatives from Montgomery county and one senator, enough on the claims of the republicans to make the legislature stand 73 democrats and 72 republicans on joint ballot.

Chairman Nash says there are about forty precincts in the state where these technical points on the location of the polls can be raised and if it is made an issue of contest it will work both ways with no one knowing the final result.

Squeaked Once Too Often

Maccabe, the ventriloquist, was a great practical joker, says Spare Moments. Several years ago he was on board a river steamboat, and, having made friends with the engineer, was allowed the freedom of the engine room.

Presently a certain part of the machinery began to creak. The engineer oilied it and went about his duties. In the course of a few minutes the creaking was heard again, and the engineer lubricated the same crank in hand, to lubricate the same crank.

Again he resumed his post, but it was only a few minutes before the same old crank was creaking louder than ever.

"Great Jupiter," he yelled, "the thing's bewitched."

More oil was administered, but the engineer began to smell a rat. Pretty soon the crank squeaked again, when, slipping up behind Maccabe, he squirted half a pint of oil down the joker's back.

"There," said he, "I guess that crank won't squeak any more."

Crocker to Visit Asheville
New York, November 6.—Richard Crocker was writing letters in his room at the Murray Hill hotel today preparing to take his departure for Asheville, N. C., with Randolph Guggenheimer, Colonel Asa Bird Gardiner and William Astor Chanler, who are elect Van Wyck not to accompany them. Mr. Crocker has not entirely recovered from the indisposition from which he had been suffering.

SPAIN'S ANSWER

The Full Text Received at the State Department—To Form Part of the President's Message to Congress—Weyler's Court-Martial in Consequence of a Protest From This Government

Washington, November 5.—The full text of the Spanish reply to the note of United States Minister Woodford has reached the state department in the last mail, and is now under examination by the officials. So far as can be learned, it is not the intention of the administration to give it publicity now, so that the interest of the people must be satisfied at present with the more or less official statements emanating from Madrid, as to the character of the Spanish note. It is expected that the president will make this note and the correspondence leading up to it the basis for one of the most important chapters of his forthcoming message to congress upon the reassembling of that body in December next, and, meanwhile, it is not believed to be probable that any radical change in policy will characterize the correspondence between the two countries unless something unforeseen occurs.

It appears that the determination of the Spanish cabinet to court martial General Weyler, while not directly due to a request of this government, was probably inspired by an intimation from the state department that his utterances were not calculated to smooth the way of the negotiations. It is surmised that by thus acting with promptness, the Spanish cabinet has paved the way for a cooler remonstrance against the publication of ex-United States Minister Taylor. The conditions in the two cases, however, are said at the state department to be entirely different. General Weyler, being a Spanish army officer, is amenable to discipline for any interference with the policy of the government, while Mr. Taylor, being a private citizen, is not accountable to his government for his individual utterances.

Winter Schedules for Southern Travel

Washington, November 5.—A meeting of the officers of the Pennsylvania road, Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad, Chesapeake and Ohio railway, Southern railway, Atlantic Coast Line, Florida East Coast railway, Florida Central and Peninsula railway, and Plant system was held here today for the purpose of considering schedules for the winter season to the south. There was little or no change made in the schedules as now in effect. The question of extra Florida service during the winter season was the principal point of discussion.

Two lines leading from Washington compete for this business—the "Florida special," which is operated over the Pennsylvania, Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, Atlantic Coast Line and Plant system, leaving New York at 12:30 p. m., Washington 6:20 p. m. and arriving at Jacksonville at 1:30 p. m. and St. Augustine 2:40 p. m. The "Florida limited," operated over the Pennsylvania, Southern railway, Florida Central and Peninsula, and Florida East Coast railway between New York and St. Augustine, will leave New York as heretofore at 12:10 high noon, leave Washington at 6:00 o'clock p. m., arrive at Jacksonville at 1:10 p. m. and St. Augustine at 2:40 p. m. Returning this train will leave St. Augustine at 11 o'clock a. m., Jacksonville at 12:10 noon, arriving in Washington at 9:45 a. m., and New York at 1:30 p. m. The train will be virtually twenty-four hours, or the quickest time that has ever been made. The above schedules become effective Monday, January 17, 1898. All other schedules by the Southern railway remain in effect as now.

The Green Family Murderer Convicted

Cincinnati, November 5.—A special to The Commercial-Tribune from Parkersburg, W. Va., says: The report that reached here yesterday that Alice Plost, the fourth victim of the murderer, John F. Morgan, of Ripley, Jackson county, was dead proved untrue. Her recovery was reported.

This morning Ripley was crowded with strangers when court opened. The crowd was orderly. The jury which was selected at Jackson, and took their seats and Morgan was placed in the dock. He pleaded not guilty. Court adjourned until 1:30 o'clock p. m., that witness could be secured and appear in court. During the long recess the spectators kept their seats in the court room.

Her evidence differed little from the published accounts, except that the murderer used an axe instead of a club. The prisoner testified that he killed the victims in self-defense—Matilda first, Mr. Green second, and the boy last. The trial lasted five hours. The jury in less than an hour returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree without recommendation. The announcement was received with cheers.

All is quiet in Ripley tonight. Sentence will be passed upon the prisoner tomorrow. It develops that Morgan is not the right name of the prisoner, his real name being Elnor. His mother kept house for a man named Morgan, of whom his father became jealous and killed, for which he in turn was killed by a member of Morgan's family.

MUTINY AND MURDER

STORY OF THE CRIMES DONE ON THE OLIVE PECKER

By the Chief Actor in the Double Murder and Ship-Burning—The Cook Kills the Captain and Mate—He and Companions Then Burn the Ship—Arrested in Brazil. Brought to the United States on the War-Ship Lancaster

Newport News, Va., November 5.—The United States steamship Lancaster dropped anchor in Hampton Roads this morning from Bahia, Brazil. In military confinement on the warship are five men of the crew of the schooner Olive Pecker, whose captain, J. W. Whitman, of Rockland, Me., and first mate, William Saunders, of Sandy Cove, N. S., were murdered at sea in August last. In the ship's brig closely ironed is J. Anderson, the schooner's cook, who is the self-confessed perpetrator of the murders and who afterwards set fire to the vessel. The Olive Pecker sailed from Boston on June 27th with a cargo of lumber for Bahia, and the story of this tragedy of the sea is told best in the words of the murderer, who tonight gave to the Associated Press the following version of his crime:

"I was the cook aboard the Olive Pecker, a two-masted schooner, from Boston to Bahia, and had to serve the captain as his servant. I had good reason to believe that the captain did not take to me and I was always in fear of my life whenever he got into his cabin. He had a dog, which was always coming into the cook house and annoying me. On the day of our little difficulty the animal came inside and threw a boiler of water on him. Well, he howled, and the next thing I knew, the captain was calling for me. I went to his cabin and he commenced cursing me, telling me that this sort of thing had to stop. I did not say anything to him and he ordered me to go into his cabin to make up his bed. This was in the morning. I made up his bed and he ordered me out with a volley of oaths.

"I saw he was in a mean humor and determined to arm myself against him. I knew the captain had some pistols in his cabin and I went back to get one of them. Just as soon as I entered the captain fired a beer bottle at me, and, seeing that I dodged it, he picked up a pistol from the table and sent a ball in my direction. I had got my hands on a weapon which was lying on the corner of his table, and of course I was shot in the d-d rascal. My first bullet took effect in his forehead and the second went into his breast, killing him almost instantly.

"I then went up on deck and called to the mate, who was in the fore rigging. He shouted down to me, asking what I wanted. I told him to come aboard—that the captain wanted him in the cabin. He started down and when he reached the deck I went for him. He was an old fellow, and I whiskered him, and I smashed him with my fist. He looked at me as if to inquire my authority to order him about, and I leveled the weapon upon him. He carried open my chest at the same time. 'Now die, like the dog you are.' With that I pulled the trigger and the mate dropped to the deck, rolling to the port side of the ship. I then went down into the cabin, thinking I would be able to take the ship by myself. I saw that the captain was a Peck again. I came upon my command mate was groaning, and I felt it my duty to put him out of his misery. One more shot did that.

"I secured the captain's other pistol, and after giving the mate a second bullet, I started toward the crew, who were aft, with a pistol in each hand, and gave them to understand I was going to put the master of the Olive Pecker, and that the first man who undertook to disobey my orders would have to take the consequences. They carried out my commands without a murmur. I first ordered them to throw the mate's body overboard, and then we went down into the cabin and brought up the captain's corpse, disposing of it in like manner. I then ordered the men to get out the oil and saturate the whole vessel fore and aft in such a manner that she would burn up like a torch. They did that, and we stowed our belongings and prepared to take to the boats, first setting fire to the old ship.

"My chum and I went down in one of the boats, while the other four men took to another. They pulled off in a different direction from us, and we never saw them again until we met in prison in Bahia. They must have peached on us, for no sooner had we landed from the ship, we had taken, than the officers placed us under arrest and sent us to Bahia.

"The Pecker was one month out from Boston, and was within two days of Bahia when all this happened. She was a two masted schooner and started out with a crew of eight."

The marine officer then concluded the story for the correspondent of the Associated Press. The officer stated that when the men were thrown into prison at Bahia, the United States consul at that port came with the navy department at Washington, and the arrest of the murderer and his accomplices, and received instruction to that port as soon as possible. The sea-faring men were kept in prison at Bahia for four weeks before the arrival of the Lancaster.

When the men were sent aboard the cruiser, they were found to be so filthy and poorly clad that it was necessary to give them baths and new wearing apparel. The cook was ordered in chains, and the remainder of the crew were secured and the ship's crew were placed in military confinement and brought to Hampton Roads, where the vessel arrived yesterday morning. The five prisoners are under the impression that they are being held as witnesses against the cook, and will be expected to testify that he murdered the captain and the mate. It is more than probable, however, that they will not only be used as witnesses against the murderer, but will be held and convicted on the charge of firing a ship on the high seas, which is a serious offense and is punishable by a long term of imprisonment.

In speaking with the Associated Press correspondent tonight, an officer from the Lancaster stated that he is of the opinion that all of the men were willing parties to the mutiny, and did not do anything ordered by the cook against their wishes.

The Attempt to Assassinate President of Brazil

Washington, November 6.—United States Minister Conger, at Rio, has cabled the state department this brief confirmation of the reported assault upon the president of Brazil.

"A Brazilian soldier attempted to assassinate the president today. The minister of war defending him was killed. There is great excitement but no general alarm. The Brazilian legation has received the following cablegram from the minister of foreign relations at Rio de Janeiro: 'Today, the 5th, the minister of war was killed while defending the president of the republic against an assassin. The president escaped unhurt. Public order is maintained.'
